Proclamation.

I, James S. Davenport, mayor of the city of Vinita, Indian Territory, in compliance with law do hereby give public notice and proclaim Saturday, December 19th, 1903, as a day on which an election shall be held for the purpose of selecting two school directors to serve three years in the school district of the city of Vinita. Said election to be opened at eight o'clock in the morning and closed at sun down of said day, and I hereby designate the following places of holding said election:

In the First ward at the Ramsey & Gerlach building; in the Second ward at the Fire department building; in the Third ward at the city hall, and in the Fourth ward at Rood & Hartford's implement building.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the city of Vinita to be affixed this 30th day of November, 1903.

James S. Davenport, Mayor

Good Entertainment.

Prof. A. Grant Eva, president of Henry Kendall college, Muskogee, Okla., will give a lecture on the X Ray and Wireless telegraph, says it was very good, and that he has fine apparatus and explains well. The lecture is to be given Wednesday evening at Willie Halsey college.

To Make New Plans.

Bob Knight has returned from the Cherokee orphan asylum where he has been reproducing the architectural plans of the building recently burned. The nation carried $27,000 on the building, and in order to ascertain the exact loss, the plan of the building will have to be made.

In the United States Court in the Indian Territory, Northern district thereof sitting at Vinita, January term, 1904. In the matter of the estate of Frank M. Cawood et. al. No 294 probate.

NOTICE To Frank M. Cawood and Elizabeth Brown, nee Cawood. You will take notice that on the 18th day of January, 1904, I will apply to the Honorable Joseph A. Gill, judge of the Northern district of the Indian Territory, for leave to make final settlement of my guardianship account and for my final discharge as your guardian.

Samuel F. Parks, Guardian.
